Terms and Conditions

1. Climbing, skiing and mountaineering are activities with a danger of personal injury or death, and participants should be aware of and accept these risks and be responsible for their own actions and involvement. While your Guide will take every reasonable step to reduce these risks to a minimum, they cannot be totally eliminated.
2. While every effort will be made to achieve the stated objective, if conditions and/or abilities of the party are not compatible with the stated objective, your Guide reserves the right to change the objective without refund of the fee.
3. All decisions in respect of mountain safety made by your Guide are final.
4. You must have adequate personal accident insurance. Outside of the UK, this must include adequate medical and rescue cover.
5. Any legal action for any reason whatsoever will be conducted in the UK under English law.

I have read and understood the above terms and conditions
